FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

INITIATED INTO KAPPA DELTA PI

CHARLESTON -- Forty-three students have been inducted into Kappa Delta Pi at Eastern Illinois University.

Kappa Delta Pi is an international honor society in education that is organized to recognize excellence in education. An individual becomes a member of the society by invitation from a local chapter whose members have approved the candidacy. Such an invitation is based on high academic achievement, a commitment to education as a career, and a professional attitude which assures the member's steady growth in the field of education.

Eastern, located in Charleston, is a public, residential university that places priority on teaching excellence. More than 11,000 students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. University faculty are involved in a wide range of research and public service activities.

Listed below are those students initiated into Kappa Delta Pi:
